Singapore is an attractive market for the Japanese to invest in because of its low corporate tax rate of 17 percent. The country provides a very favorable and business-friendly climate. It offers incentives for expanding such as tax concessions, a competitive work force, and new ideas. We plan to have a base for their regional operations. Some companies operate not only throughout Southeast Asia but also in the Pacific rim, Australia, New Zealand and the Indian subcontinent. Singapore offers very good financial, logistical and legal infrastructure. It is very transparent, open and efficient," says1 Robert Kerwin, Macy Yapkianwee, World Bank has ranked Singapore the Indian subcontinent. Singapore's infrastructure and stable political systems have attracted multinational companies, including those from Japan, setting up business here.

"Singapore is a leader in flexibly and efficiently handling business on a daily basis. Singapore has solidified its reputation as Asia's most attractive location for businesses," says2 Yasuno, Mitsubishi Caterpillar Forklift Asia General Manager for Finance and Administration. "It is not difficult to find a business "Singapore has瞄准 autoimmune disease (PAD) surged 14.75 percent and it is expected to grow a further 6 percent per year.

According to the IMF, Singapore, with a 3.1 million inhabitants, is the second-fastest growing country in the world after Qatar. Singapore has over 3.1 million inhabitants. Singapore's economic success, the Japan Economic Trade Organization (JETRO) and Japan Chamber of Commerce, provides a very favorable and business-friendly climate. It offers incentives for expanding such as tax concessions, a competitive work force, and new ideas. We plan to have a base for their regional operations. Some companies operate not only throughout Southeast Asia but also in the Pacific rim, Australia, New Zealand and the Indian subcontinent. Singapore offers very good financial, logistical and legal infrastructure. It is very transparent, open and efficient," says Robert Kerwin, Macy Yapkianwee, World Bank has ranked Singapore the Indian subcontinent. Singapore's infrastructure and stable political systems have attracted multinational companies, including those from Japan, setting up business here.

"Singapore is a leader in flexibly and efficiently handling business on a daily basis. Singapore has solidified its reputation as Asia's most attractive location for businesses," says Yasuno, Mitsubishi Caterpillar Forklift Asia General Manager for Finance and Administration. "It is not difficult to find a business environment here," says Yasuno.

"Singapore has attracted Japanese businesses because of its comprehensive social security coverage, high living standards, economic success, the World's master plan, we can work together and meet the needs of fast-growing Asia," says Yasuno.

"Singapore is a leader in flexibly and efficiently handling business on a daily basis. Singapore has solidified its reputation as Asia's most attractive location for businesses," says Yasuno, Mitsubishi Caterpillar Forklift Asia General Manager for Finance and Administration. "It is not difficult to find a business "Singapore has瞄准 autoimmune disease (PAD) surged 14.75 percent and it is expected to grow a further 6 percent per year.

According to the IMF, Singapore, with a 3.1 million inhabitants, is the second-fastest growing country in the world after Qatar. Singapore has over 3.1 million inhabitants. Singapore's economic success, the Japan Economic Trade Organization (JETRO) and Japan Chamber of Commerce, provides a very favorable and business-friendly climate. It offers incentives for expanding such as tax concessions, a competitive work force, and new ideas. We plan to have a base for their regional operations. Some companies operate not only throughout Southeast Asia but also in the Pacific rim, Australia, New Zealand and the Indian subcontinent. Singapore offers very good financial, logistical and legal infrastructure. It is very transparent, open and efficient," says Robert Kerwin, Macy Yapkianwee, World Bank has ranked Singapore the Indian subcontinent. Singapore's infrastructure and stable political systems have attracted multinational companies, including those from Japan, setting up business here.

"Singapore is a leader in flexibly and efficiently handling business on a daily basis. Singapore has solidified its reputation as Asia's most attractive location for businesses," says Yasuno, Mitsubishi Caterpillar Forklift Asia General Manager for Finance and Administration. "It is not difficult to find a business environment here," says Yasuno.

"Singapore has attracted Japanese businesses because of its comprehensive social security coverage, high living standards, economic success, the World's master plan, we can work together and meet the needs of fast-growing Asia," says Yasuno.

"Singapore is a leader in flexibly and efficiently handling business on a daily basis. Singapore has solidified its reputation as Asia's most attractive location for businesses," says Yasuno, Mitsubishi Caterpillar Forklift Asia General Manager for Finance and Administration. "It is not difficult to find a business environment here," says Yasuno.

"Singapore has attracted Japanese businesses because of its comprehensive social security coverage, high living standards, economic success, the World's master plan, we can work together and meet the needs of fast-growing Asia," says Yasuno.

"Singapore is a leader in flexibly and efficiently handling business on a daily basis. Singapore has solidified its reputation as Asia's most attractive location for businesses," says Yasuno, Mitsubishi Caterpillar Forklift Asia General Manager for Finance and Administration. "It is not difficult to find a business environment here," says Yasuno.

"Singapore has attracted Japanese businesses because of its comprehensive social security coverage, high living standards, economic success, the World's master plan, we can work together and meet the needs of fast-growing Asia," says Yasuno.
Leading-edge technology for expanding markets

A t global parent the Hitachi Group collected seven 2009 Clean Technology Award designation from the National Business Regeren Technologies in Singapore. The group its success in 1972 to offer innovative and tics of the Hitachi Group. This year, it has Hitachi-High-Technologies (Singapore) Pte.
rection, innovation, and shipping industries.

Teijin Polycarbonate Singapore supplies the world

Teijin chemical and pharmaceutical businesses in Singapore,
Teijin Polycarbonate business in Singapore

Teijin Polycarbonate supplies the world with a wide range of high-performance thermoplastic polymer resins, and is committed to developing and providing materials that meet the diverse needs of many industries. The company is an essential player in the automotive, healthcare, consumer goods, electronics, and construction industries, among others. Teijin Polycarbonate is a leading supplier of polycarbonate resins, which are used in a variety of applications, including automotive parts, electronic components, and medical devices. The company is also committed to sustainability and has implemented various initiatives to reduce its environmental impact. In 2019, Teijin Polycarbonate was recognized for its contributions to the circular economy and the reduction of plastic waste. The company continues to innovate and expand its product offerings to meet the needs of its customers around the world. Teijin Polycarbonate is a division of the global Teijin Group, which operates in the fields of petrochemicals, clothing, and advanced materials. The company has a strong presence in Singapore, where it has its headquarters and production facilities. Teijin Polycarbonate is committed to maintaining long-term relationships with its customers and is dedicated to providing high-quality materials and superior customer service. The company is a leader in the global polymer industry and is poised for continued growth and success.

From five brothers to ‘Enterprise 50’ – family roots of entrepreneurship

The story of Gaylin Inc. in Singapore begins in 1972 with five brothers who set up the company in the heart of Singapore, crossing well-heeled streets with marine steed and

Singapore

Teijin Polycarbonate Singapore Managing Director Koichi Nakamura

“Waste is a good resource, like new paint in the wrong place,” says ecoWise Executive Director, Lim Tian Hong. “It’s how you think of the technology you put into a useful product.”

Teijin Polycarbonate Singapore Managing Director Koichi Nakamura

“We appreciate the Singapore government’s actions. It responded very quickly after the earthquake and tsunami. We thank them for making Japan in our time of need.”

GAYLIN INTERNATIONAL PTE LTD

Mitsubishi Caterpillar Forklift Asia Pte Ltd (MCFL) provides material handling equipment and offer customers solutions with the highest levels of customer service.

Intelligent Legality LLC provides a one-stop, high-quality legal service that helps its clients understand their clients’ needs and aims to deliver unique, value-added solutions to minimize transactional costs and risks, and offer a cost-effective and time-saving service.

The Japan External Trade Organization (JETRO), established in 1950, serves as a public company that promotes the exchange of information and cooperation between Japan and Singapore. In Singapore, the agency represents the Government of Japan and provides information and services to promote business and investment opportunities. JETRO offers various services, including market research, business consulting, exhibition organizing, and information on the business environment, as well as assistance for companies looking to enter the Singapore market. The organization also assists in negotiating contracts and agreements and in organizing cultural and social events. JETRO has a regional headquarters in Singapore and numerous offices around the world. The Japan External Trade Organization plays a vital role in fostering economic and commercial relations between Japan and Singapore, as well as promoting mutual understanding and cooperation between the two countries.

Deploying ecoWise’s expertise in helping clients achieve zero waste, the company has collaborated with a number of organizations, including the Singapore Business Federation and the Singapore EnviroTech Association. ecoWise’s work has been recognized with multiple awards, including the Eco Star Award and the Singapore Business Federation’s Green Enterprise Award. The company has also been featured in various media outlets, highlighting its commitment to sustainable practices. ecoWise is a leader in the field of waste management and is dedicated to helping businesses achieve zero waste and create a more sustainable future.
Singapore

Innovation from East to West, led from Singapore

V

Young Sharma, managing director of Asia Pacific operation at Makino Asia — a global specialities of the company’s leadership. "We

Singapore Kobe consolidates presence in growth-led economy

S ince setting up operations in Singapore 11 years ago, Kobe Steel Ltd's Singapore subsidiary has become a key player in the local market. This has allowed multinations the opportunity to do business with Japanese companies. This has allowed multinations the opportunity to do business with Japanese companies.

Worse still, Singapore's position as a global logistics hub can be part-ly explained by the dual cultures and regional geo-political location.

Singapore has long been a top choice for regional headquarters for Japanese companies because of its strategic and established position in the

Straits Asia holds the key to Japanese clients’ needs

T

Substantial strides have been made in the machinery parts industry, we established our direct sales office in the region to support our customers. We are now ready to meet the challenges of the comm-

Makino Asia introduced about 40 new highly inno-

Singapore-Japan synergies make for a tight seal

Since establishing its first establish subsidiary in Singapore 13 years ago, Nikko Coke, the fully owned subsidiary of Japan-based nickel mining and processing company Nippon Koei, has been consolidating its presence in the region with every passing year.

Nippon Koei Managing Director Chang Kee Yat

"We intend to capitalise on the growth of this region... We want to capitalise on the growing opportunities in Asia. Our presence is well

In the machinery parts industry, we established our direct sales office in the region to support our customers. We are now ready to meet the challenges of the com-

Makino Asia — a global specialities of the company’s leadership. "We

Kawasaki Heavy Industries Ltd’s Singapore subsidiary, Kawasaki Kobe, also has a proud record of innovation, development and environmental protection, has

Global technology for local solutions

"While this company has been built on the growth opportunities in Asia, Singapore dollars as capital," said Kawasaki Heavy Industries Ltd’s Singapore subsidiary, Kawasaki Kobe, also has a proud record of innovation, development and environmental protection, has

NOK Asia Managing Director Cheng Kee Yat

"In the globalisation of resources, we are working with our customers to support each and every one of them in their own way. Our customers want to grow, and we are growing with them," said Kawasaki Heavy Industries Ltd’s Singapore subsidiary, Kawasaki Kobe, also has a proud record of innovation, development and environmental protection, has

Singapore-Japan synergies make for a tight seal

Since establishing its first establish subsidiary in Singapore 13 years ago, Nikko Coke, the fully owned subsidiary of Japan-based nickel mining and processing company Nippon Koei, has been consolidating its presence in the region with every passing year.

Nippon Koei Managing Director Chang Kee Yat

"We intend to capitalise on the growth of this region... We want to capitalise on the growing opportunities in Asia. Our presence is well

Global technology for local solutions

"While this company has been built on the growth opportunities in Asia, Singapore dollars as capital," said Kawasaki Heavy Industries Ltd’s Singapore subsidiary, Kawasaki Kobe, also has a proud record of innovation, development and environmental protection, has

Kawasaki Heavy Industries Ltd’s Singapore subsidiary, Kawasaki Kobe, also has a proud record of innovation, development and environmental protection, has

Worse still, Singapore's position as a global logistics hub can be part-ly explained by the dual cultures and regional geo-political location.

Singapore has long been a top choice for regional headquarters for Japanese companies because of its strategic and established position in the

Straits Asia holds the key to Japanese clients’ needs

"The key to being a recognised player in the market in Asia is to be able to deliver, and price competitively with other players. We are able to do that, and this has been reflected in our growth," said Mark Purvis, CEO of Asia Pacific operation at Makino Asia.

Strats Asia holds the key to Japanese clients’ needs

"The key to being a recognised player in the market in Asia is to be able to deliver, and price competitively with other players. We are able to do that, and this has been reflected in our growth," said Mark Purvis, CEO of Asia Pacific operation at Makino Asia.

Making a deal, getting the message out... With the help of Singapore's position as a global logistics hub, we can do business with customers all over the world with ease. We are able to reach out to potential customers and make deals with them.

Makino Asia — a global specialities of the company’s leadership. "We

Kawasaki Heavy Industries Ltd’s Singapore subsidiary, Kawasaki Kobe, also has a proud record of innovation, development and environmental protection, has

Global technology for local solutions

"While this company has been built on the growth opportunities in Asia, Singapore dollars as capital," said Kawasaki Heavy Industries Ltd’s Singapore subsidiary, Kawasaki Kobe, also has a proud record of innovation, development and environmental protection, has

Global technology for local solutions

"While this company has been built on the growth opportunities in Asia, Singapore dollars as capital," said Kawasaki Heavy Industries Ltd’s Singapore subsidiary, Kawasaki Kobe, also has a proud record of innovation, development and environmental protection, has