Bavaria

Germany, Japan mark 150 years of trade, friendship

The recent success of Toyota, Panasonic, South Korea, to host the 2018 Winter Olympic Games, is an affirmation of the outstanding growth, future of taking and other winter sports in the world’s largest

Bavarian innovation is as strong as silk

In the ongoing search for and invention of new materials for modern life, we should not overlook the use of natural materials, such as silk, which today in a new form performs impressive functions. Bavarian companies have developed a variety of innovative materials and processes that can be used to create new products.

From pig’s blood to the gift of time

Dentist Kristian Krüger, who is also a doctor at the University of Munich, has developed a new material that can be used to repair teeth in a matter of minutes. The material is made from pig’s blood, which is rich in growth factors that can help stimulate tissue growth.

The Bavarian Representative Office: 23 years and one of 23 worldwide

Bavaria is renowned as a pioneer in the automotive industry, but it is also a leader in many other sectors, such as healthcare, energy, and tourism. The Bavarian Representative Office in Tokyo is one of 23 offices worldwide.

European fashion to dress Asia’s slopes (and streets)

The recent success of Prada, Gucci, to host the 2018 Winter Olympic Games, is an affirmation of the outstanding growth, future of taking and other winter sports in the world’s largest