A golden age of strategic partnership

The Japan International Cooperation Agency is providing valuable assistance for many Philippine BB projects, including the ambitious Cebu-Cordova Link Expressway (CCLE). "BBB is an initiative that can potentially change the face of the Philippines,” said Yutaka Hara, Senior Vice-President of JICA-Philippines (J-Philippines).

“BBB is the brainchild of the late Emperor Akihito of Japan, who passed away in 2019. The project is named after him and represents the cases in which China, Korea and Japan.

“We are proud to supply high-quality, environmentally friendly products to Asia,” said Yutaka Hara, Senior Vice-President of JICA-Philippines (J-Philippines).

"Our goal is to expand our product and service offerings, people and our presence in the Philippines, said Kansai Yamashita, Managing Director of Kansai Paint Corporation (KPC).

Kansai Paint Philippines has been around for over 20 years, and during this time, the company has been providing high-quality, environmentally friendly painting solutions to the Filipino market.

"Our core values are built on integrity, professionalism and dedication," said Lemuel V. Marcelo, Chairman and CEO of Daikin Marcelo & Tenefrancia (DM&T).

"Our goal is to educate the market regarding the benefits of using Daikin’s products and services and to guide leaders, particularly in the private sector in this new era, combining ‘ Duterte’s Build” initiative driving large-scale infrastructure projects, foreign direct investment is expected to increase. With an increasing number of deals being done, foreign companies are in a very pleasurable experience working with the Philippines, "said Yamanishi.

"We are a family and we encourage our employees to grow with the company and our business operations by strength," said Tanghii. "The relationship between the company and the employees is very special, said Yamanishi. "We are committed to delivering high-quality, efficient and reliable products and services that offer better value for money."

"As Duterte stated in Tokyo in December 2018, the Philippines is a very unique and interesting country which is full of opportunities," said Mr. Laurel. "I am very happy that the Japanese companies are considering the Philippines as a business location."

"Our goal is to tap into the synergy between the Philippines and Japan, and is seeing strong demand for our product and service offerings, people and our presence in the Philippines," said Kansai Paint Corporation (KPC).

The Philippines Amusement and Gaming Corporation (PAGCOR) is creating opportunities beyond Gaming

For over three decades, PAGCOR has consistently been one of the government’s reliable partners in nation-building. The bigbulk of gaming revenue goes to the national coffers, various government institutions and the Filipinos.

With every peso we earn, we see the fruits by constructing thousands of classrooms. We nourish their bodies through school feeding programs...

And we empower communities through PAGCOR’s numerous corporate social responsibility projects.
