Japan's commitment to strengthening the country's attractiveness to global investment

Be a global player - Do your part

Japan’s position in the global economy is important for Vietnam’s FDI approvals and investors’ confidence in the country. The country's ability to attract Japanese investment is crucial to its success. Our commitment to the Vietnam-Japan business conciliation event is a testament to our shared goal of promoting bilateral trade and investment between our two nations.

With a stable political landscape, gross domestic product growth of 6.6 percent and strong export figures, Vietnam is an attractive destination for foreign investors. The country's success in becoming an automotive hub and attracting global companies is a testament to its potential.

The Vietnamese population is growing and increasing industrialization, household spending is on the rise. With Vietnam being a major trend in the manufacturing sector, there is a surge of Japanese investments.

Japan has invested in various types of businesses in Vietnam, such as real estate, retail, and automotive. The country's success can be attributed to the strong support of the government and the Japanese community.

In conclusion, Japan's commitment to strengthen the country's attractiveness to global investment is a testament to its potential as a manufacturing hub and a destination for foreign investors. The Vietnamese community has a shared goal of promoting bilateral trade and investment between our two nations. With a stable political landscape, Vietnam is an attractive destination for Japanese investors.

Supporting Vietnam’s booming construction industry

The construction industry in Vietnam is growing rapidly, with a focus on sustainable development and innovative solutions.

Vietnam’s construction industry is one of the fastest-growing sectors in the country. With a focus on sustainable development and innovative solutions, the industry is expected to continue its growth in the coming years.

The Vietnamese construction industry is contributing to the country's economic development, with a focus on environmental sustainability and innovative solutions.

In conclusion, Vietnam’s construction industry is growing rapidly, with a focus on sustainable development and innovative solutions. The industry is expected to continue its growth in the coming years.

Toyota: The most valuable automotive brand in Vietnam

Toyota will continue our commitment to foster local production, going through the development of the country on its journey toward motorization.

Toyota Vietnam has reinforced its leading position in Vietnam with its investments in the automotive industry for multiple years in a row, not only in business, but also in improving the living conditions of the people. Toyota Vietnam is a good citizen of Vietnam.

Toyota’s commitment to the local manufacturing industry was tested last year when the government lifted tariffs on imported cars from ASEAN countries, which was an important milestone in the country’s journey toward motorization.

Toyota, as a leading automotive brand, has been a significant contributor to the country's economic development. With its investments in the automotive industry, Toyota has helped to bring modern technology and innovation to Vietnam, improving the living conditions of the people.

In conclusion, Toyota Vietnam will continue its commitment to foster local production, going through the development of the country on its journey toward motorization.