Finland and Japan celebrate 100 years of friendship

Finland's history of trade with Japan goes back to 100 years. The country has tied up business with Japan in certain economic sectors such as energy, transport, and health. Motivations for these include the need to learn the latest technologies and the need to strengthen economic relations. The business climate and business culture have also developed over the years.

The business climate and business culture have also developed over the years.

Tallink Silja Oy warmly welcomes Japanese guests on sea voyages across the Nordic region

Tallink Silja Oy, the official service provider of the Northern Irish market, has been operating in the business of transport and tourism since 1966. In 2012, Tallink Silja Oy's ships pay visits to Helsinki more than 10 million passengers every year to disembark for their journey to the Nordic region.

Tallink Silja Oy is a Finnish shipping company that operates the Northern Irish market, with ships that visit Helsinki more than 10 million passengers every year to disembark for their journey to the Nordic region.

Patricia Pays up for Success after Arming itself with New Technologies

The world of weapons is a very complex one, and it requires companies to be constantly innovating and adapting to the changing needs of their clients.

Metsä Fibre leads the way to a sustainable future

The company has been operating in the business of transport and tourism since 1966. In 2012, Tallink Silja Oy's ships pay visits to Helsinki more than 10 million passengers every year to disembark for their journey to the Nordic region.

For over 40 direct flights from Japan to Helsinki connect to over 50 destinations in Japan, while on-demand flights to Helsinki connect to over 10 million passengers every year to disembark for their journey to the Nordic region.

The company has been operating in the business of transport and tourism since 1966. In 2012, Tallink Silja Oy's ships pay visits to Helsinki more than 10 million passengers every year to disembark for their journey to the Nordic region.

For over 40 direct flights from Japan to Helsinki connect to over 50 destinations in Japan, while on-demand flights to Helsinki connect to over 10 million passengers every year to disembark for their journey to the Nordic region.

The company has been operating in the business of transport and tourism since 1966. In 2012, Tallink Silja Oy's ships pay visits to Helsinki more than 10 million passengers every year to disembark for their journey to the Nordic region.

For over 40 direct flights from Japan to Helsinki connect to over 50 destinations in Japan, while on-demand flights to Helsinki connect to over 10 million passengers every year to disembark for their journey to the Nordic region.

The company has been operating in the business of transport and tourism since 1966. In 2012, Tallink Silja Oy's ships pay visits to Helsinki more than 10 million passengers every year to disembark for their journey to the Nordic region.

For over 40 direct flights from Japan to Helsinki connect to over 50 destinations in Japan, while on-demand flights to Helsinki connect to over 10 million passengers every year to disembark for their journey to the Nordic region.

The company has been operating in the business of transport and tourism since 1966. In 2012, Tallink Silja Oy's ships pay visits to Helsinki more than 10 million passengers every year to disembark for their journey to the Nordic region.

For over 40 direct flights from Japan to Helsinki connect to over 50 destinations in Japan, while on-demand flights to Helsinki connect to over 10 million passengers every year to disembark for their journey to the Nordic region.
Finnish agency "Nordic BioTech" offers groundbreaking antimicrobial protection globally

M ade from an innovative antimicrobial innovation developed by the Nordic BioTech Group Ltd., the sustainable healthcare innovation won the Sustainable Healthcare Innovation World winner "Dainojin" from Japan in 2006 and 2007. "Seven Seas" got the world title in 2014 and 2018 in recognition of its work in antimicrobial protection globally.

The NordShield technology has over 30 years of R&D experience and has been continuously conducting tests. Kristoffer Ekman, CEO of Nordic BioTech Group, Hitachi Construction Machinery, Corp. and Sandvik, "Close to 20 percent of Fortaco Group’s turnover comes from successful business with Japanese companies," and Lars Hellberg, President and CEO of Fortaco Group.

Our vision is to allow the foreign companies to contribute to the automotive and marine industry and its quality standards. Fortaco Group has been a part of the automotive and marine industry for over 30 years. Our long-term relationships," said Takako Uchida, Fortaco Group, the leading strategic partner to the heavy off-highway equipment and marine industries," shared Ekman. "Our technology forms a decisive point to excellence.

"We really enjoy working with our Japanese customers. One of the key things that we have learned from our experience is that we need to be very focused on the right solutions for their businesses," said Hellberg. "By giving our clients respect, singularity and fair service, we would be able to help them in finding the right solutions for their businesses," he said.

"We really enjoy working with our Japanese customers. One of the key things that we have learned from our experience is that we need to be very focused on the right solutions for their businesses," said Hellberg. "By giving our clients respect, singularity and fair service, we would be able to help them in finding the right solutions for their businesses," he said.

"We really enjoy working with our Japanese customers. One of the key things that we have learned from our experience is that we need to be very focused on the right solutions for their businesses," said Hellberg. "By giving our clients respect, singularity and fair service, we would be able to help them in finding the right solutions for their businesses," he said.